Admission to Trading

MOH Nippon Plc (LSE: MOH), a crowdfunding services provider for real estate investment in Japan, is pleased to confirm that, further to the Company's announcement of 16 August 2024, its Enlarged Issued Share Capital has today, at 8:00 a.m., commenced trading on the Main Market of the London Stock Exchange. In addition, the Company's change of name to 'MOH Nippon Plc' and its TIDM to 'MOH' has become effective.

Aamir Quraishi, Non-Executive Chairman of MOH, said: "We are delighted to have completed the acquisition of MOH and for the shares of our Enlarged Group to commence trading. As the first company with its business and operations in Japan to list equity on the Main Market of the London Stock Exchange in over 20 years, this is a very proud moment for all of us at the Company. We are excited to embark on this new phase having started as a special purpose acquisition company, and to now be delivering on our growth strategy as MOH Nippon with new colleagues and an established operational business. We thank shareholders for their support and look forward to providing further updates on our progress."

Defined terms in this announcement which are not defined herein shall have the same meanings as in the Company's prospectus dated 31 July 2024.
